

On Campus

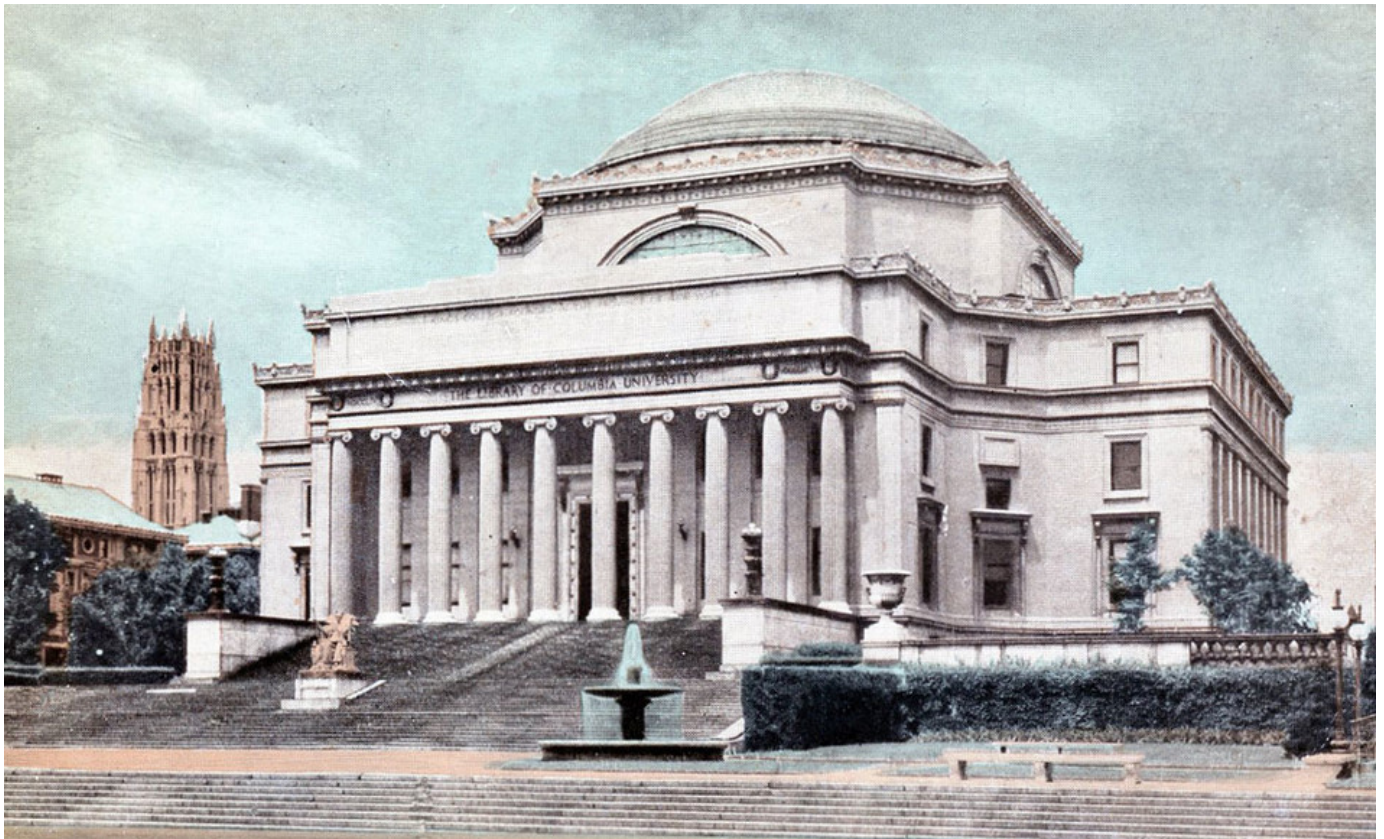

33 More Views of Vintage Columbia

Jul. 20, 2021

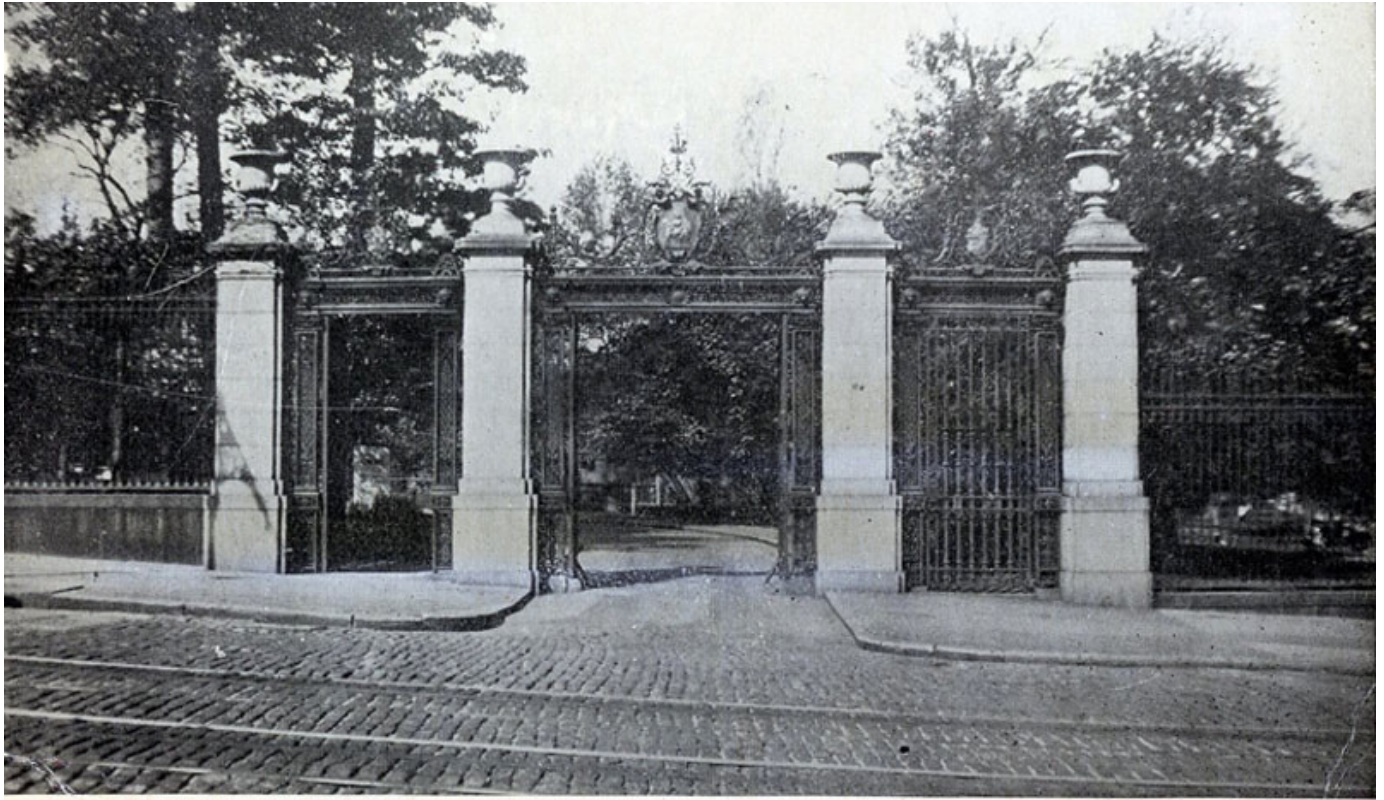

Since the late nineteenth century, charming images of Columbia and its surrounding neighborhoods have appeared on countless postcards. Take a look at this nostalgic collection compiled by Ira Cooper '76CC.

Low Library

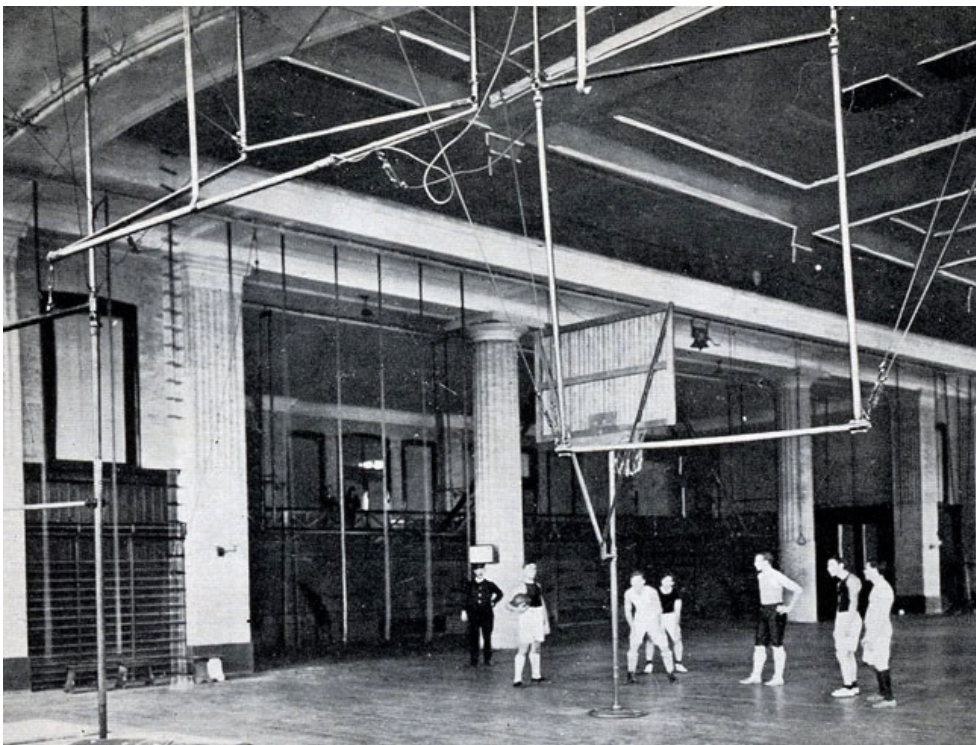

Around campus

GATE DONATED BY THE CLASS OF '88, Columbia University, New York.

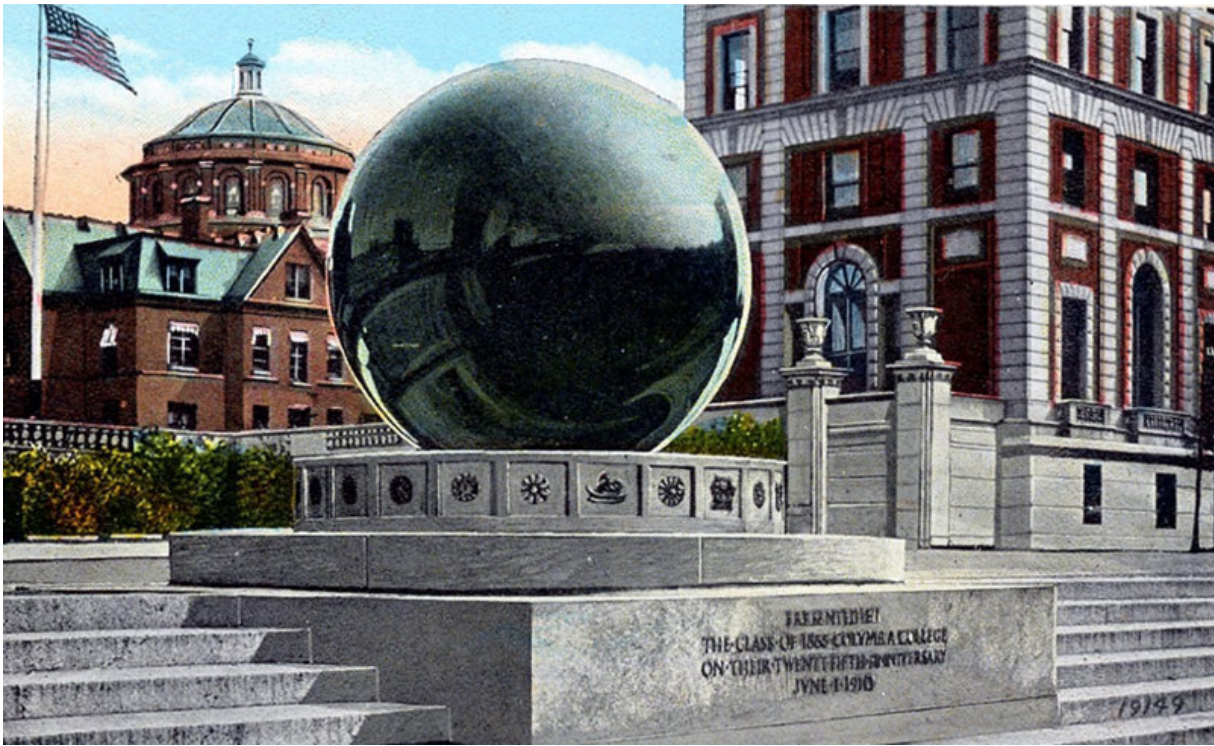

The Van Amringe Memorial

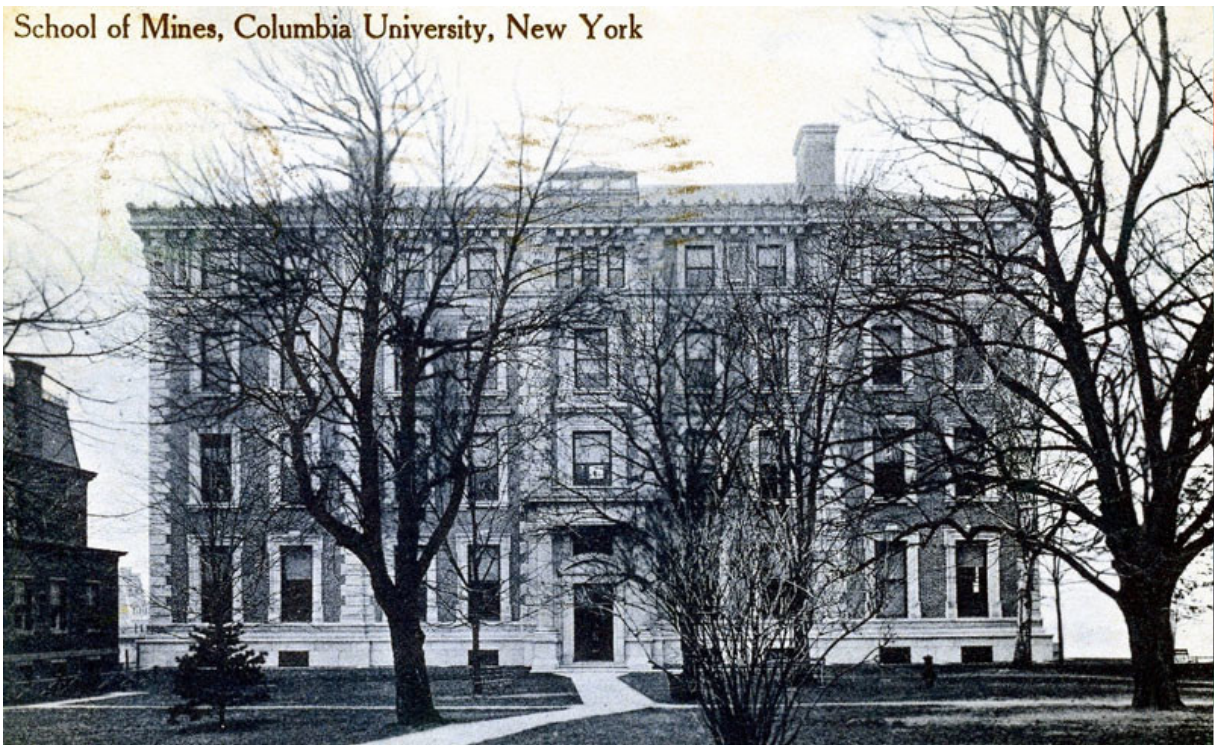

Columbia
University
Gymnasium,
New York, N.Y

SOUVENIR POST CARD CO. N.Y.

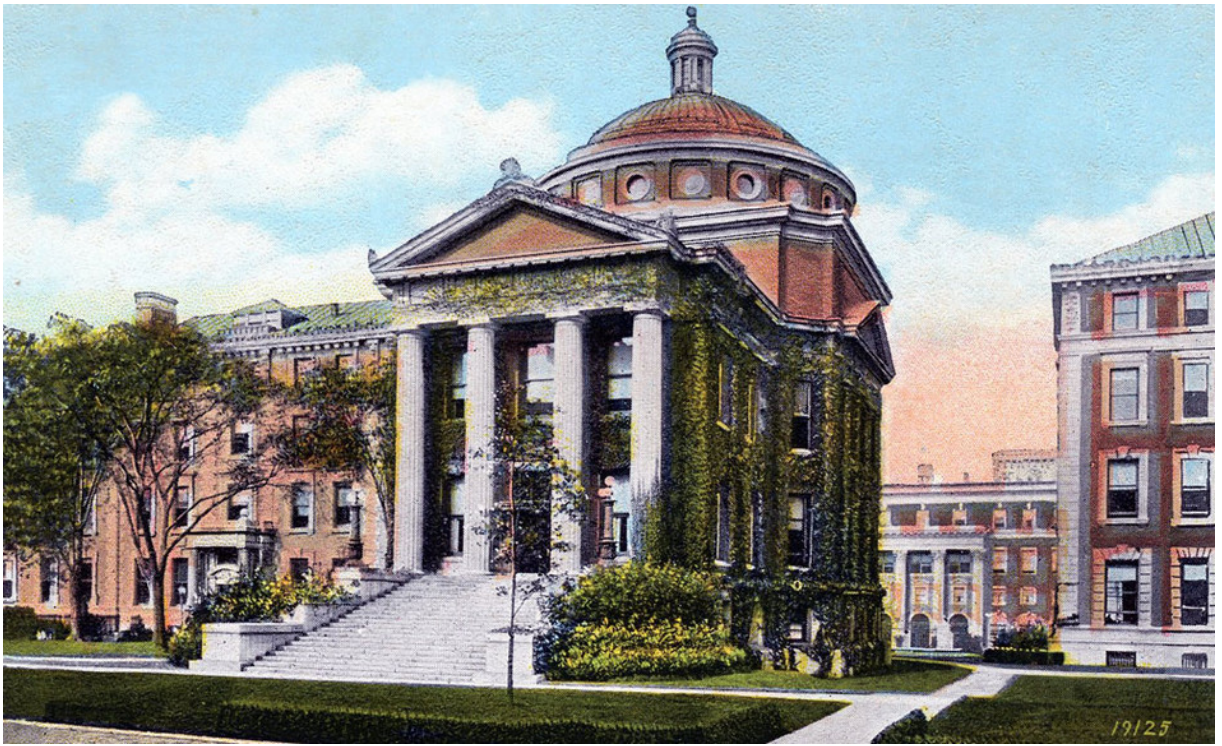

The gym

The Columbia sundial

Columbia's School of Mines, which would later become the School of Engineering and Applied Science

Earl Hall

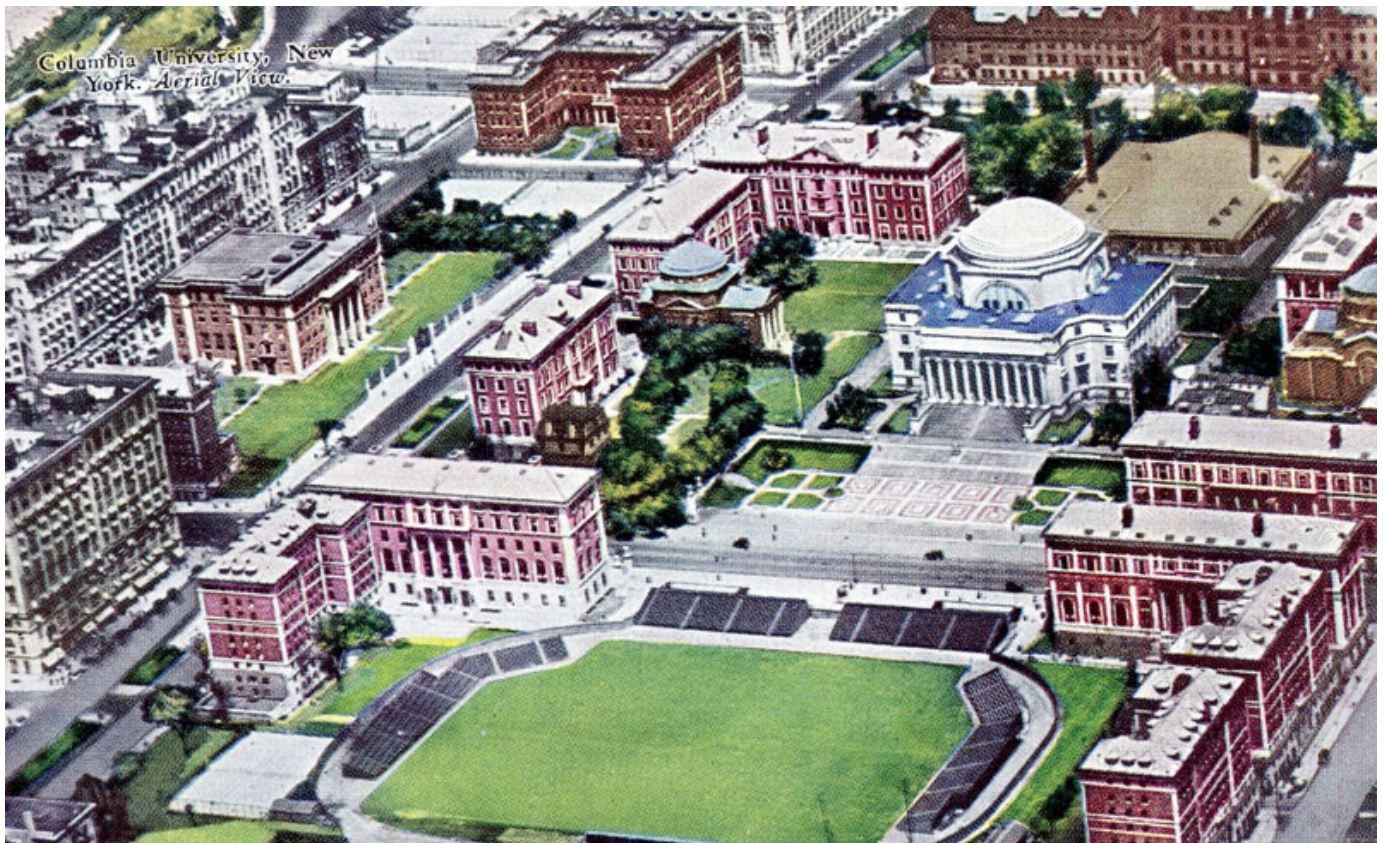

© by Ambrose Fowler N.Y.

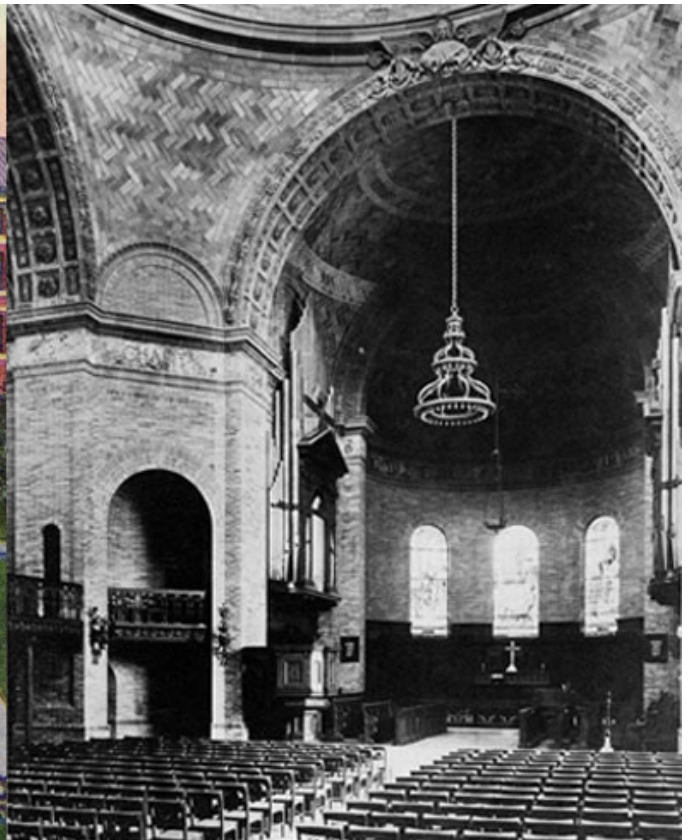

Columbia University N.Y. 1912

Views from the top

St. Paul's Chapel

Street scenes

Amsterdam Avenue

Broadway

Riverside Drive

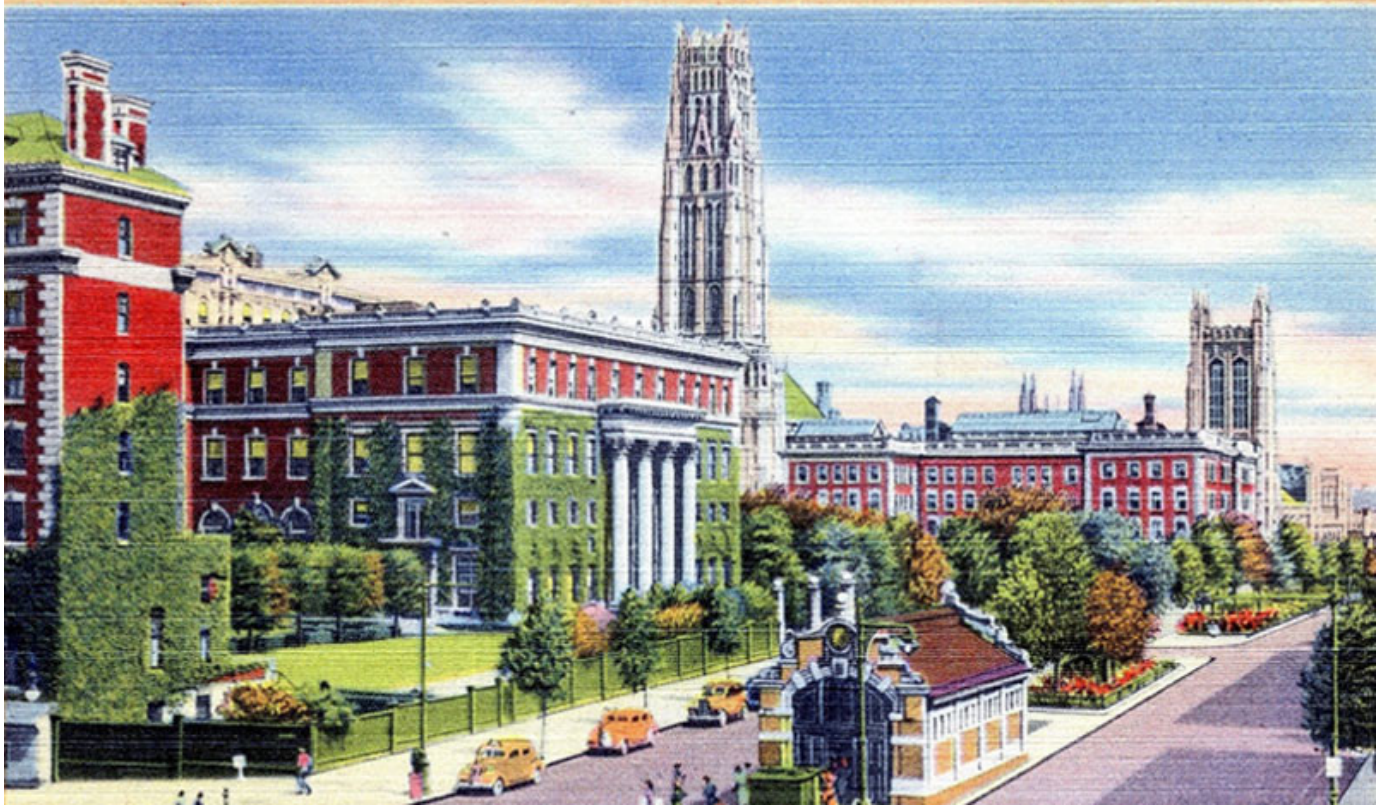

JOURNALISM BUILDING, Columbia University, New York

Barnard College

Barnard College, Columbia University, New York City

168

Barnard College, NEW YORK.
New York. BARNARD COLLEGE.

Off campus

The Columbia Yacht Club on the Hudson River

Grant's Tomb

The Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine

Riverside Drive

MORNINGSIDE PARK, NEW YORK

Claremont Ave., North of 116th St., New York City

The subway

No. 165—116th Street Station, the Subway, N. Y

Columbia University

116th St. and Broadway

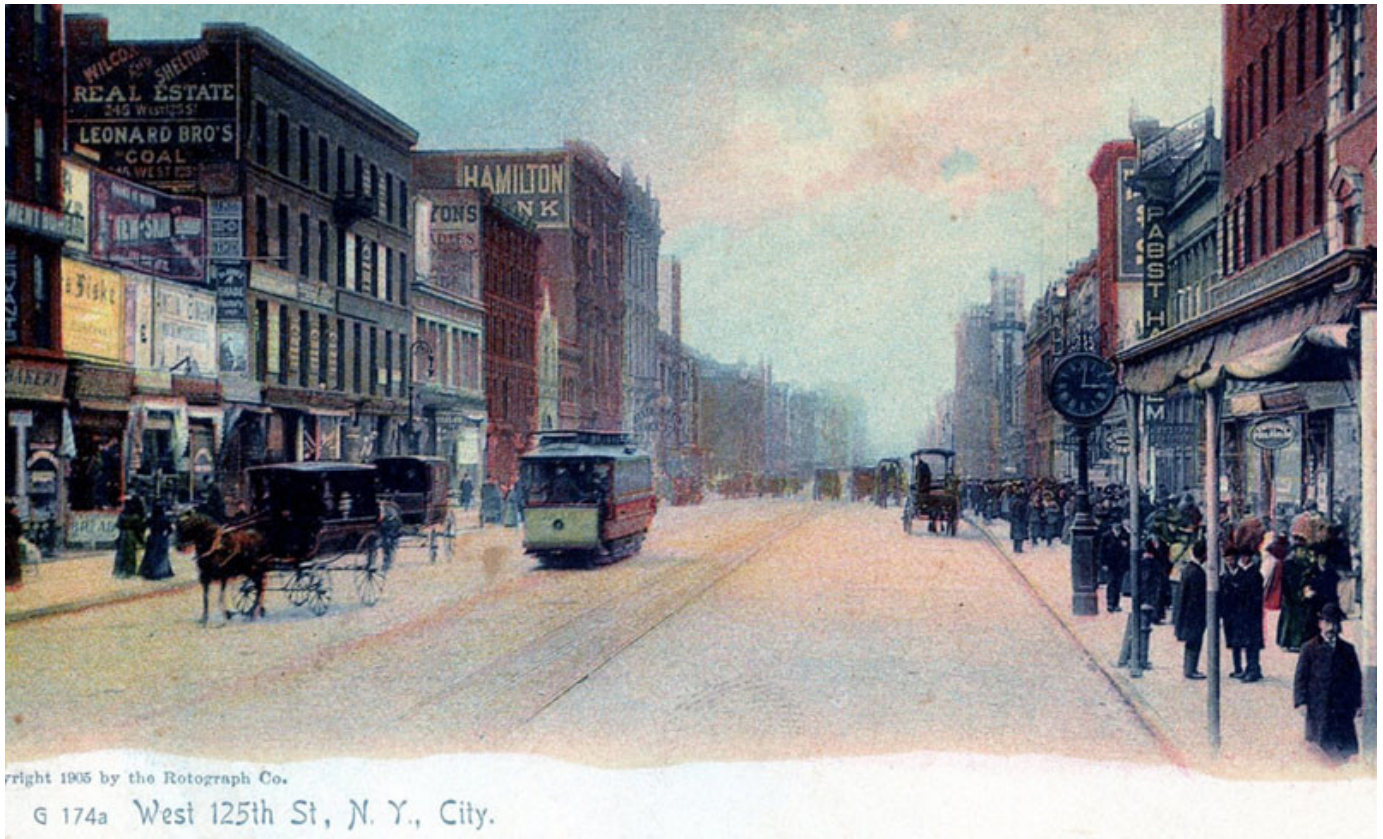

Elevated R. R. Curve at 110th Street, New York.

Manhattanville

Guide to school abbreviations

All categories >